

My comment to FCC that the FCC Ruling is somehow too much. We should reduce some of those silly rules such as demanding to open more sorensen VRS center that which will reduce hours. So, we probably should to support with our patience for await next available interpreter. BUT I did see an improvement of rapid get interpreter available.